Dear Anthony,

It is with pleasure that I provide this written summation and recommendation related to your participation in Michigan Assisted Living Association's 50th Anniversary Conference Power Up! Innovation, Inspiration and Motivation.

Thank you for kicking off our conference with your high-energy, inspirational and motivational presentation entitled "The Meaning of Life." It certainly powered up our attendees! It is exactly what we had hoped for in our keynote session. My only regret is that we did not invite you to close out our conference as well. It would have been ideal if we had thought to ask you to conclude our conference and have attendees depart with the same energy and enthusiasm as they experienced during your opening session.

Anthony, I invite you to share this letter with other businesses or organizations who are considering your participation in their event. In addition, I will gladly speak with them and you are welcome to share my direct dial number (734-525-2407) or my email address (broberts@miassistedliving.org).

Please accept Michigan Assisted Living Association's sincere appreciation for helping make our 50th Anniversary Conference a huge success.

Best Regards,
